

"Alexis Bonte is the co-founder and CEO of eRepublik Labs.

eRepublik Labs (one of the top 25 start ups in Europe according to TechCrunch) is "crafting game worlds for true gamers".

eRepublik.com, its first massive online social strategy game, is set in a mirror version of the real world. It has 5 million registered players and has won several industry awards.

Prior to Erepublik.com, Alexis was with lastminute.com for 6 years right up to its 1b$ trade sale to Sabre in 2005 . first as Head of Business Development (UK) then as Marketing and Sales Director (France) and then as Managing Director (Italy).

Alexis is also an angel investor with numerous investments mainly in the Internet space. He is the non-executive chairman of the video and music social entertainment community trilulilu.ro, one of the top 3 Romanian websites and of Zonga.fm the music streaming service that powers Vodafone in Romania.

Alexis is half French, half Portuguese and lives in Madrid, Spain. He holds a BA Honours Degree in International Business & Languages from the European Business School (London), is a sailing national champion (Portugal) and is fluent in 6 languages. In 2012 Alexis was recognized by the World Economic Forum (Davos) as a Young Global Leader (YGL)."